Contemplative Praxis – On the road with Jesus..

Contemplative Praxis – On the road with Jesus will be held at Faith Works at Coorparoo this July – August. The program will explore contemplation in the context of life. A contemplative stance to life and faith involves prayerful attentiveness to all dimensions of our lives, including: our interior self, our relationships, creation, and to our God. This stance is present in the psalms, the life of Jesus, the desert fathers and mothers, and throughout church history.

Far more than a project of spiritual self-improvement, it is Jesus' radical invitation to...

- come into relationship,
- to find rest for our souls, and
- to participate in his radical kingdom agenda.

It is to be reminded that everything in life flows out from God and back into God; a remembering that comes through being still and coming again and again to "know that I am God." Anchored in God, our Personhood in-Christ, we become more alive, authentic and fully human, we awaken to our true identity and purposeful vocation, and we actively live God's presence in our world. The contemplative stance, with its balance of solitude and action, can be nurtured through a heart of prayer, prayerful engagement with scripture, and participation in a community of faith, retreats, and spiritual direction. Spiritual direction is a centuries old practice dating back to the early church. It aims to encourage us as pilgrims to become more awake to the mystery of God's presence and action within our human experience and assisting us in making a fuller and freer response to it.

A contemplative praxis engages us in a continuing cycle of prayer – reflection – scripture – worship – accountability – and action.

The cost of Contemplative Praxis is $480, including the retreat. See Irene Alexander on irenics@ozemail.com.au for more information.

Important Conference Opportunity – 10th August 2016

This event, Winds of Change Bringing Revival and Transformation, will help us move forward in a proactive way to live out some of the priorities set by the 32nd Synod last month. Living Faith Uniting Church is hosting Rev Dr Alistair Petrie from Canada who has considerable experience in helping churches see transformation occur in the local church and community. This is timely for the Uniting Church. All are welcome to attend and each church is encouraged to bring a team so that you can explore the process of leading prayer, transformation, and connecting with your community. The Conference is being held at Living Faith Uniting Church, 330 Pine Mountain Road, Carina Heights, Brisbane on 10th August 2016. The event will commence at 9.30am and conclude with an Activation Dinner in the evening. This is an important opportunity for all of us.

RI in Schools

You may have heard about RI hitting the headlines recently. Rest assured the Qld Heads of Churches, ably led by David Baker, is consulting with Government to assure things are business as usual. As Churches and Ministers, please ensure your area is up to date with all Cooperative agreements with schools. Your Instructors have a letter of support from yourself, and you have a positive relationship with the school. There is a particular lobby group working to remove RI, and parental choice, from state schools. Make sure you are up-to-date on the FACTS about RI [I can help there] and perhaps encourage people to write brief, non-religious language, positive e-mails of support for RI to your State Member or Education Minister.
